Intermediate Governmental Accounting On-line FAQ's

Q. How do I register for the course?

A. You register on the Cooper Center web site and pay the $125 registration fee. Once you register, an email is automatically sent to Bruce Chase at Radford University notifying him that you have enrolled. He will then send you a password so that you can log on to their website and take the course.

Q. How many points is the class worth?

A. The class is worth 7 hours of continuing education credit.

Q. What is the format of the online class? Is it broken into separate modules where you complete one module, answer some review questions, and then move onto the next section?

A. This is a self-pace course that has five main sections. Each section has a recorded PowerPoint slide presentation. Prior to starting the exam, you can come and go from the presentation at any time. After working through the slides for a section you should take that section's quiz. The slides can be printed in advance for reference and making notes while taking class. You can take the quizzes as many times as you like. However you must make 100% on one of the attempts for each section to get credit for the class.

Q. Does the user select of the start date?

A. When you register for the class, you will be asked to e-mail your desire start date. Every attempt will be made to meet that request.

Q. For the five day class period - Is this a Monday to Friday time period?

A. No, the five day period can start on any day.

Q. Is the final exam repeatable or a one-time attempt

A. After you have completed all five modules, you need to take the course exam. There is a two-hour time limit and you only have one attempt. Once you start the exam, the two-hour period begins and does not stop if you leave the exam. There are 50 multiple choice questions on the exam. You must receive 70% correct on the exam to get credit for the class.
